We're back, baby! And so are our beloved upscale nosheries, pubs and watering holes of all varieties. It's time to re-engage your nightlife, day drinking or whatever timeframe of social meal sharing you prefer.

The Inlander's annual restaurant guide — The Menu — is back, fully loaded with great places to meet for dinner, along with new spots to share a morning mimosa, and an eggs bene to spark tales of the previous evening.

Don't miss our mouth-watering ode to sugar, and always remember to Drink Local as you try one of our featured Happy Hour hangouts. It's a great time to be living it up in the Inland Northwest!

Keep this handy guide all year, and use it often. When you find a new favorite, post it on social media and tag us @theinlander. We love sharing good news, especially when it comes to food!

MEET CHEF ADAM

Our Chinook Crafted by Chef Adam Hegsted menu features delectable dishes created by local celebrity chef Adam Hegsted. You may have seen him recently on FOX 28's Eat Like a Chef TV show or remember him from his early days when the Chinook was new to our casino resort and Adam was our Executive Chef. Words often used to describe the dishes on the revitalized menu: memorable, innovative and delicious.

Come try Chef Adam Hegsted's latest creations.

Chinook Wild Sockeye

Tiger Prawns

One Destination, Eight Delicious Choices

The Coeur d'Alene Casino Resort Hotel is a dining destination for all-seasons and occasions, with eight great places to grab a bite, have a sip, or stay and savor a delicious meal.

As the weather warms, embrace the morning with a cup of local Cravens Coffee at Jackpot Java in the plant-filled and light-flooded spa tower passageway. That's where you'll also find Huckleberry Deli, perfect for a quick meal — try the breakfast burritos — or a late-night snack.

You don't have to play golf to enjoy breakfast, lunch or a cold one at Twisted Earth Grill over at the Circling Raven Golf Course pro shop. Plan on patio dining and try a refreshing Northwest-inspired salad or the all-new Italian burger.

Warm up by the fire at the resort's Red Tail Bar and Grill for a delicious meal any time of the day, including the popular breakfast omelet bar. Tuck into a booth for a succulent smokehouse burger and craft beer, or gather with friends to root for your favorite teams with margaritas and fajitas, two Red Tail classics.

For an elevated dining experience, pop into the bar at Chinook crafted By Chef Adam Hegsted for artisan cocktails, beer or wine and shareables like giant tiger prawns or decadent roasted garlic mac n' cheese. Reserve your spot at Chinook for fine dining in a relaxed atmosphere with your favorite dishes — wild sockeye salmon, filet mignon, Northwest seafood Alfredo — plus seasonal offerings from Chinook's award-winning chef.

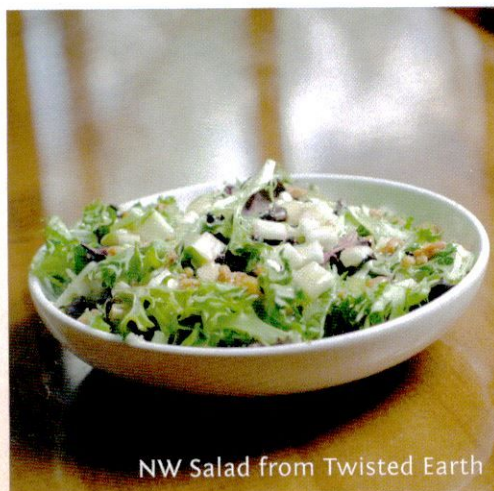

Celebrate your good fortune any time of the year with Little Dragon Eatery, Coeur d'Alene Casino's newest restaurant serving Asian-inspired cuisine, opening summer 2022.

Italian Burger from Twisted Earth

Rediscover the all-season dining destination that is uniquely Coeur d'Alene.

Come for the amazing entertainment and expanded gaming area, book a spa day or a round of golf on the award-winning course. Then rediscover the all-season dining destinations that are uniquely Coeur d'Alene. ♦

The Wine. The Deli. The Café. The Store. The Experience!

We believe meals done properly provide nourishment for the soul. The Culinary Stone is as much about discovering how to eat as it is discovering what to eat. We've poured our passion for living and eating well into a 5,500 square foot culinary playground modeled after the charm of an old-world outdoor market.

Explore specialty, hard-to-find foods from around the region and the world, including wine, cheese and artisan cured meats. Enjoy one of our mouth-watering made-to-order deli sandwiches and a cup of our daily fresh made soups. We have been told that our sandwiches and soups are the best in the area! And to complete this culinary extravaganza, we have a charming café featuring locally made pastries.

Our goal is to make gourmet experiences part of your everyday. Come see us!

Eat Good, Eat Everywhere

Eat Good Group gives you dozens of ways to enjoy the Inland Northwest, from its growing restaurant family, to collaborations with local farms, to the celebrated local company's commitment to community. Whether you're in Spokane or enjoying the resort towns of Sandpoint and Coeur d'Alene, the Eat Good Group is there for you.

In Kendall Yards, start your day with The Yards Brunchon, or look next door for later morning-through-evening meals that meld Mediterranean cuisine with classic comfort foods at Baba. Gilded Unicorn is the place to go downtown for afternoon-to-evening craft cocktails, creative cuisine and a cool, subterranean vibe. Also downtown, Incrediburger & Eggs has re-engineered the entire burger experience with local ingredients and scratch made everything, right down to the pickles! Or bring the party to you with Le Catering and the Incrediburger & Eggs food trucks.

We feel our place in the community is to help where we can including at Sandpoint's Laughing Dog Taproom and on local grocery store shelves. Also available at some local stores are Eat Like a Chef meal kits, an innovative collaboration with the local Share Farm.

Eat Good Group's commitment to community goes beyond cuisine, however. "We feel our place in the community is to help where we can and use the resources we have to help grow a better place for all of us to live," says Eat Good Group founder and national award-winning chef Adam Hegsted. "We put a high value on our employees and feel that their individual influences in the restaurants are what makes each one special and unique." ♦

Head East in the West Plains

Your search for the best regional food and beverage options in Eastern Washington starts in Airway Heights, where Northern Quest Resort & Casino has your favorite restaurants and dishes, plus exciting new dining, drinking and entertainment venues opening in 2022.

If you were a fan of Fai's Noodle House, you'll love, love, love Northern Quest's newest restaurant: East Pan Asian Cuisine, serving dishes inspired by Asian Pacific, Chinese, Japanese, Korean and Thai cultures. Try broccoli beef with cooked-to-order steak, red roast pork with steamed bao buns or refreshing Thai quinoa salad. Enjoy a variety of all-new house-made noodle dishes and top them with a skewer of Zabuton of Beef, Organic Chicken or Black Cod Filet. East also features an expertly curated sake and Asian beer menu, plus unique semi-private, Japanese-style Horigotatsu dining areas with recessed tables, lots of legroom and custom cushions.

Don't forget to finish off your East experience with a slice of delicious house-made Matcha-Yuzu Cake, infused with green tea, white chocolate and citrus, or Shave Ice with house-made syrups and a seasonal surprise tucked inside.

“Everything about East is special,” says Executive Director of Resort Operations Sam Askew, “from several styles of house-made noodles to the fresh ingredients and detailed attention paid to creating delicious dishes with a twist. We’re continuing to elevate the food and beverage experience at Northern Quest and it all starts with a fantastic new mouth-watering menu at East.”

At least two other new dining venues are scheduled to open at Northern Quest in 2022, including a fun retro pizza-by-the-slice restaurant and a Gatsby-esque style speakeasy club. Regardless of the style of food or décor, all venues are focused on providing the outstanding Kalispel Hospitality guests have come to expect at Northern Quest. ♦

Dining Out After Inlander Restaurant Week

Where to eat out the other 355 Days of the Year

INLANDER RESTAURANT
WEEK

10 DAYS

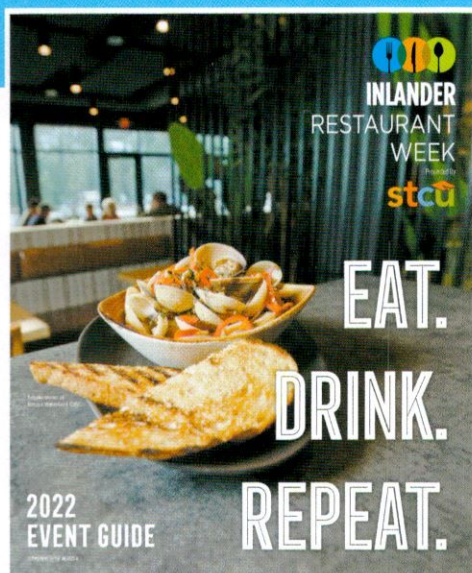

3 COURSE-MEALS

$22, $33 OR $44

FEBRUARY 23-
MARCH 4, 2023

For 10 glorious days every year, the Inland Northwest's most exciting restaurants indulge diners with pre-fixe three-course meals. For some restaurants, it's a chance to introduce newcomers to some of their most-loved entrees. For others, it's an opportunity to showcase their creativity - creating new dishes or even themed menus. And for diners, Inlander Restaurant Week is an opportunity to discover a new favorite restaurant.

But 10 days isn't a lot of time - especially when diners can typically choose from more than 100 restaurants offering three-course meals for the set price of $22, $33 or $44. But that doesn't mean you have to stop exploring when those 10 delicious days are over. Here are some tips to let Inlander Restaurant Week inspire you to find your new go-to restaurants the other 355 days of the year.

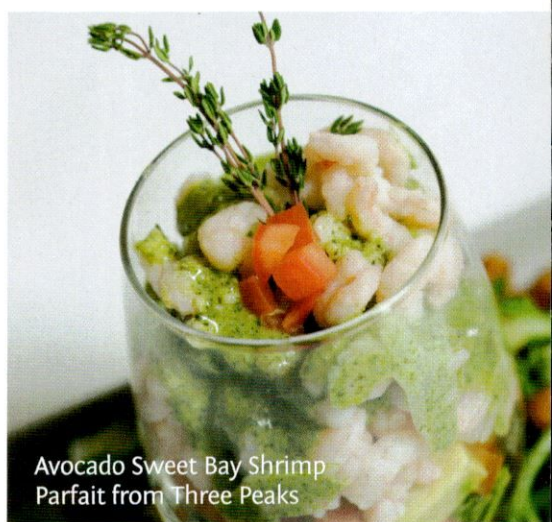

↑ GET OUT YOUR GUIDE

It's easy to get into a rut when it comes to eating out. We go to our neighborhood burger joint. We pickup take out from that Thai place that's on our way home from work. But what do you do when you want to plan a special anniversary dinner or wow out-of-town relatives? Pull out your Inlander Restaurant Week guide. In it, you'll find feature articles on some of the most daring and talented chefs in our region. You'll also find a handy index that lets you search for restaurants by cuisine or neighborhood. Don't have your guide anymore? No problem. You can browse through the 2022 guide on InlanderRestaurantWeek.com, and you can also search for restaurants by cuisine, area and price point.

SAMPLE FAN-FAVORITES

The other advantage of browsing the Restaurant Week guide after the event – the menus. While some chefs use Restaurant Week to stretch the bounds of their creativity and offer new menu items, many showcase their signature dishes. So browse through those three-course Restaurant Week menus again. We'll keep them up online through the end of December. If there's an appetizer or entree featured on a restaurant's three-course menu that's calling to you (hello, Tequila clams at Terraza) – check the restaurant's website and see if it's on their regular menu or give them a call and ask. And yes, those clams with reposado tequila, Argentinian chorizo, clams, herbs and lime are available all year long.

GET SOCIAL

While Inlander Restaurant Week takes place just once a year, its social media accounts are active all year long, highlighting new restaurants, special events, and more. Give a follow on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. Just don't be surprised when scrolling through makes you a little hungry. ♦

5 Reasons to Drink Local

Arbor Crest Wine Cellars

1. IT SUPPORTS SMALL BUSINESS

The Inland Northwest is home to many amazing, locally made beers, wines, ciders, spirits and more.

When you choose a local brew, you're supporting someone's dream, and the money you spend stays in the local economy!

2. IT TASTES AMAZING

Our award-winning local products just taste great. We live in a world-class spot for hops, wheat and grapes, and that comes through in our local libations.

No-Li Brewhouse

3. IT'S GOOD FOR THE PLANET

Shipping heavy liquids like beer, wine, and spirits takes a lot of energy, but when you Drink Local, your beverage didn't have to travel far! Your locally made drink has a smaller carbon footprint than one shipped in from across the country.

Brick West Brewing

4. VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF LIFE

There are dozens of breweries, wineries and distilleries in the Inland Northwest. From big to small, there's options for everyone. You'll find unique flavors, recipes and blends that you won't find anywhere else.

Bardenay

5. YOU HAVE A CHANCE TO MEET THE MAKER

It's unlikely you'll ever get to meet the person who brewed a nationally known domestic beer. But stroll into a local Inland Northwest brewery, distillery, or winery and you just might find yourself shaking hands with the person who made your drink!
